Introduction

Levanto Technical Services

has emerged as a prominent provider of Smart building home automations, high-level Security Systems, Retail Security Solutions, Audio Visual Systems, IT & Telecommunications & other Low Voltage Systems for commercial & residential.

The company has evolved from the early beginnings to a "total one stop solution" entity, wherein a project is addressed from its conception stage to design, co-ordination, project execution / management, testing and commissioning with the help of highly qualified and experienced Engineers having international experience.

Our Goal is to introduce and make mainstream new innovations that reshape industries to break away from their existing limitations and make-way for the future.

Mission Statement

At Levanto Technical Services, we are committed to providing automation for your home or business that is user-friendly and best fits your personal taste and priorities. We strive to understand and meet your needs using high-quality, high-value products, with solutions that exceed your expectations.

Vision Statement

LEVANTO vision is to keep providing innovative solutions for home business automation that brings cutting edge technology at affordable price.
